

Curious Avatar

Hello,

Thank you for reading my book. I hope you enjoyed reading Curious Avatar, and I hope your curiosity will guide you along your path to enlightenment. These Book Club Questions will help you focus on discovering reality from your unique perspective. Take any ideas of interest to you and use your own life as a testing ground. Develop your own unique view of reality—the one that works for you.

I wish blessings upon you, my fellow Curious Avatar . . . my friend!

Finally, would you reach out to me if you've read my book with your book club? Use the hashtag #CuriousAvatar on social media to share pictures of you, your group, or your favorite reading spot.

I'm grateful to you!

The Questions

Section I: The Realm of Energy

Q. The Energetic Creative Force is described as: 1. Source (Infinite) 2. Spirit (Creative) and 3. Material (Evolutionary). What kind of effect do each of these characteristics have on your daily life?

Q. The book holds the possibility that we (humans) are instrumental to perfecting the link between energy and matter. In fact, this is our ultimate mission. In what ways are you positively contributing to this evolution? What are your top five obstacles to Spiritual growth?

Q. As a channel for Creative-Energy, you are creating your reality in every moment of every day. Look at your life. Where are you funneling high-frequency and low-frequency energy into existence?

Section II: Converting Energy to Matter

Q. As an Avatar of your Spirit, you are directly connected to Source. How does your life reflect this connection to God? How have you used this creative power to positively impact your life?

Q. You simultaneously exist in your material and Spiritual forms. Does your brain facilitate or inhibit your communication with Spirit?

Q. Souls collaborate. Not only for your benefit, but for the benefit of others. Can you identify the Souls that have made the biggest impact in your life (both positive and negative), and recognize their contribution to your spiritual growth.

Framework for Section III: Crafting Reality

Q. Knowingly or unknowingly, our energy is continually communicating with our environment. Examine your life. What is your energy attracting and bringing into existence?

Q. Difficulties are our greatest teachers. What have been your greatest challenges and what have they taught you?

Q. It might be an unpleasant notion, but in order to heal the past you must take responsibility for everything in your reality. What circumstances, events, and relationships continue to haunt you? What have you been unwilling to face and take responsibility for?

Framework for Section IV: Karmic-Force

Q. Karma from past actions impacts the present. Take a look at your reality today, what manifestations (positive and negative) are directly attributable to stored karma.

Q. Most relationships have a long karmic history. Can you identify these legacy relationships in your life? What lessons are these relationships meant to teach you?

Q. Invariably, in order to heal the past you must be willing to pay your karmic debts. What past actions have you avoided facing?

Framework for Section V: Human Nature

Q. True spiritual development cannot take place without openness and curiosity. What rigid ideologies are stifling your evolution?

Q. Unconscious habits drive most human behavior and directly affect our reality. What habits are holding you back?

Q. Our access to Source-Energy has a direct effect on our physical and mental health. Examine your own health. What is your body and mind telling you about your relationship with Source?
